ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION OF COMPLAINTS AND DUE PROCESS POLICY

(A) ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION OF COMPLAINTS

- (1) Any person who receives services from the UCBDD may file a complaint involving the programs, services, policies or administrative practices of the UCBDD or an entity under contract with the UCBDD. Filing a complaint using the identified process will not take away rights to services.
- (2) The identified process will be used prior to commencing a civil action regarding the complaint.
- (3) If the county board is requesting a termination or reduction in services, current services will be provided until a final resolution is made.
- (4) This policy DOES NOT apply to:
 - (a) UCBDD employees;
 - (b) Individuals placed by the Lead Education Agency (LEA); the Ohio Department of Education (ODE) rules will be followed in these cases;
 - (c) Medicaid Services including Home and Community Based Waiver Services; if desired, the individual and the UCBDD may attempt to informally resolve the issues related to HCBS services through the UCBDD grievance process; and
 - (d) Complaints regarding the administration of prescribed medication, performance of health-related activities, and performance of tube feedings by UCBDD personnel; these will be made to the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities

- (5) If the UCBDD determines that a complaint or appeal filed with the county board is not subject to this policy, the UCBDD will provide information to the person filing the complaint for the appropriate entity, if available, with which to file a complaint.
- (6) An individual receiving supported living services through locally funded services, will follow the procedure for complaints.
- (7) The UCBDD will post the toll-free number for both Disability Rights Ohio and DODD in a visible place.

(B) DEFINITIONS

- (1) “Adverse Action” means any of the following:

 - e. Within 5 calendar days of the team meeting, the UCBDD will:
 - i. With the consent of the individual, implement measures to eliminate the circumstances that jeopardize the health and safety of the individual or other individuals and restore suspended services OR
 - ii. With the consent of the individual, continue to arrange for appropriate alternative services OR
 - iii. Provide written notice that includes the components described in this policy of the UCBDD’s decision to terminate services at least 15 calendar days prior to the effective date of the termination. The county board shall keep alternative services in place until the appeal process is completed.

(F) FORMAL PROCESS FOR RESOLUTION OF COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS OF ADVERSE ACTION

- (1) Step One: File a complaint or appeal of adverse action with the department director responsible for the program, service, policy or administrative practice of the UCBDD. At any time during this process, timeline extensions may be granted if approved in writing by both parties.

- a. An individual must file a complaint with the department director within 90 calendar days of becoming aware of the program, service, policy or administrative practice that is the subject of the complaint.
- b. If the individual appeals within the time period between the notice and the effective date of the adverse action, the individual's services will not be reduced, suspended, or terminated until the appeal process is completed or the appeal is withdrawn. The individual may voluntarily consent in writing to the reduction, suspension, or termination of services during the appeal process.
- c. The department director will conduct an investigation of the complaint or appeal, which will include meeting with the individual who filed the complaint or appeal.
- d. Within 15 calendar days of receipt of the complaint or appeal, the department director will provide to the individual who filed the complaint or appeal, and be available to discuss, a written report and decision. It will include a rationale for the decision and a description of the next step in the process if the individual is not satisfied with the outcome.

(2) Step Two: File a complaint or appeal with the Superintendent of the UCBDD.

- a. If the individual filing the complaint or appeal is not satisfied with the outcome of the process, he or she may file a complaint or appeal with the superintendent of the UCBDD within 10 calendar days of notice of the decision of the department director.
- b. If no decision is provided by department director within 15 calendar days, the complaint or appeal must be filed with the superintendent within 25 calendar days of filing the complaint with the department director.
- c. Within 10 calendar days of receipt of the complaint or appeal, the superintendent or his/her designee will meet with the individual and conduct an administrative review.
- d. As part of the administrative review, the superintendent or designee may ask questions to clarify and review the circumstances and facts related to the department director's decision and will provide the individual the opportunity to present reasons why the department director's decision should be reconsidered.
- e. Within 15 calendar days of receipt of the complaint or appeal, the superintendent or designee shall send by certified mail, a copy of his or her decision to the individual who filed the complaint or appeal. Such decision will include the rationale for the decision and a description of the next step in the process if the individual is not satisfied with the decision of the superintendent or designee.

(3) Step Three: Filing a complaint or appeal with the president of the UCBDD

- a. If the individual filing the complaint or appeal is not satisfied with the outcome of the process, the individual may file a complaint or appeal with the president of the UCBDD within 10 calendar days of notice of the decision of the superintendent or designee. Appeals shall be sent to UCBDD, 1280 Charles Lane, Marysville, Ohio 43040.
- b. If no decision is provided by the superintendent or designee within 15 calendar days, the complaint or appeal must be filed with the president of the UCBDD within 25 calendar days of filing with the superintendent.
- c. The president of the UCBDD will ensure that a hearing is conducted within 25 calendar days of receipt of the complaint or appeal, at a time and place that is convenient to all parties. At the hearing:
 - i. The UCBDD may hear the complaint or appeal;
 - ii. A committee of two or more UCBDD board members appointed by the president, with agreement of the UCBDD, may hear the complaint or appeal;
 - iii. A hearing officer appointed by the UCBDD may hear the complaint or appeal. The hearing officer will have the same powers and authority in conducting the hearing as granted to the UCBDD. The hearing officer shall not be an employee or contractor of the UCBDD providing any service other than that of hearing officer. The hearing officer need not be an attorney, but shall possess qualifications to be able to make neutral and informed decisions about the complaint or appeal. The UCBDD may ask the Department to decide if a person is qualified to be a hearing officer. The hearing officer will issue a report and recommendation to the UCBDD within 10 calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing.
- d. Upon request, the individual filing the complaint or appeal will be provided access to all records and materials related to the complaint or appeal, no less than 10 calendar days before the hearing.
- e. To the extent permitted by law, the hearing will be private unless the individual requesting the hearing wants it to be open to the public.
- f. During the hearing, both parties may present evidence to support their positions.

- g. The individual and the UCBDD have the right to be represented by an attorney.
- h. The individual has the right to have in attendance at the hearing and question any official, employee or agent of the UCBDD who may have evidence upon which the complaint or appeal is based.
- i. Evidence presented at the hearing will be recorded by stenographic means or by use of an audio recorder at the option of the UCBDD. The record shall be made at the expense of the UCBDD and, upon request, one copy of a written transcript will be provided, at no cost, to the individual requesting the hearing.
- j. In making its decision, the UCBDD may request or consider additional information with notice to all affected parties, may request a presentation in writing and/or in person from each party or take another action necessary to make a determination.
- k. Within 15 calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing or the UCBDD's receipt of the report and recommendation from a hearing officer, the president of the UCBDD will send, by certified mail, a copy of the UCBDD's decision to the individual requesting the hearing. Such decision will include the rationale for the decision and a description of the next step in the process if the individual is not satisfied with the decision of the UCBDD.

(4) Step Four: File a complaint or appeal of adverse action with the Director.

- a. If the individual filing the complaint or appeal is not satisfied with the outcome of the process, the individual may file a complaint or appeal with the Director within 15 calendar days of notice of the decision of the UCBDD..
- b. IF no decision is provided by the president of the UCBDD within 15 calendar days, the complaint or appeal must be filed with the Director within 55 days of filing the complaint with the president of the UCBDD.
- c. The Director will send a copy of the complaint or appeal to the superintendent and president of the UCBDD. The president of the UCBDD will send the Director the written transcript of the UCBDD hearing, copies of any exhibits, and a copy of the UCBDD's decision within 20 calendar days of receiving a copy of the complaint or appeal from the Director.
- d. Upon request by an affected party or at the Director's initiation, the Director may request or consider additional information with notice to all affected parties, may request a presentation in writing and/or in person from each party, or take other action necessary to make a determination.

- e. Within 45 calendar days of receipt of the written transcript of the UCBDD's hearing, copies of any exhibits and a copy of the UCBDD's decision from the president of the UCBDD, the Director shall send by certified mail, a copy of his or her decision to all affected parties. The Director shall uphold the decision of the UCBDD if the Director determines that the decision is in accordance with applicable statute and administrative rule. The Director's decision shall include the rationale for the decision.

(G) OTHER REMEDIES

After exhausting the administrative remedies required by this policy, an individual may commence a civil action if the complaint or appeal of adverse action is not resolved to his or her satisfaction.
